

MARGARETA AND MÅNS LUNDEBERG Founders of Handpicked Wines Sweden AB

Handpicked Wines was established 2005 by Margareta and Måns Lundeberg and is today a well established wine importer in Sweden. The couple have management experience in leading positions from large international companies in the Nordic region.

We are a Swedish company fully licensed to import distribute and sell, wines and spirits, to both Systembolaget (government controlled monopoly stores for wine and spirits) and the HORECA. Handpicked Wines, are the product owner, and hold stocks for the Swedish market.

Our company strategy is to import exciting quality wines from both old and new world and to cover both Systembolaget as well as the HORECA and wholesalers with own sales representatives. We work with Liquid Logistics in Sweden, as a service provider for primary logistics, warehousing, and secondary distribution to wholesalers and Systembolaget stores.

We find it extraordinary intresting to work with small and medium sized producers that are unique and special for the Swedish market.

Welcome to tell us your story and what products you can offer customers here in Scandinavia – a knowledgeable and curious target group for quality beverages.
